CAMERA REPORT

DRAMATIC MOMENT in last week's Belle Glade commission session to consider dismissal of City Manager Tom Carle came as A. L. Mulsch (center) shook his finger at Commissioner Herman Close (right foreground) to emphasize unjust treatment he felt Carle got at hands of Close and Commissioner H. O. Carlton. Flanking and behind Mulsch are other citizens protesting Carle's dismissal. (See Pictures Page 5)

FORMER MGR. JOB HUNTING

BELLE GLADE — Former City Manager Tom Carle was looking for a job and Belle Glade had no city manager after a City Commission meeting last Friday night in City Hall.

Carle, recently relieved of his duties, re-applied for the city manager post at the special meeting called by Mayor Harold Rabin to interview applicants for the post. After determining that no individual commissioner nor Carle had any mutual animosity, Mayor Rabin outlined the city's requirements in a manager.

Commissioners Walter Ashley, Zack Ingram, Herman Close and H. O. Carlton heard the Mayor discuss charter provisions which require that city to have a manager and note that a manager holds his position at the pleasure of the City Commission.

Name Withdrawn — It was this provision that caused Carle to withdraw his name as an applicant for the position. He wished immediate charter revision which would provide for the manager's duties and those of the commissioners in relation to him to be outlined. Commission discussed an ordinance in which these provisions could be incorporated but ran into a snag on the tenure of the manager. (Continued on Page 8)

Five Glades football heroes made the 1954 All-Suncoast team this year, including Hal Rosenberg and Walter Mosely, stellar backs for Pahokee and Belle Glade, respectively, and End Don Waddell, Tackle Tommy Elliott, and Guard Jimmie Lee Hoyle, all of the Pahokee Blue Devils' conference championship team.

EMH STOCKING IS FILLING

PAHOKEE — With the start of the annual membership drive of Everglades Memorial Hospital auxiliary next Tuesday for $50 down payment for a dish-washing machine made to the hospital by Beta Sigma Phi sorority, there were signs that the hospital's stocking was beginning to be filled by civic support.

A statement released this week by Hospital Administration, of Jesse W. Reel, covering the five year period ending Aug. 31, 1954, turned up a sizeable set of needs for the hospital's mythical stocking.

Needs Listed — They include: floor lamps, wheel chairs, mattresses, bathtubs and bassinets, air conditioner units, draperies, a cooking range, a laundry machine, a flat ironer, foam rubber pillows, another oxygen tent, lobby furniture, scales, stretchers, electric fans, X-ray cassettes, miscellaneous linens, overbed tables, and miscellaneous surgical instruments.

The hospital with 46 beds and 12 bassinets, lists as income and expenses for the five year period: gross earnings of $640,047; 08 less charity and free work $98,996.46, resulting in net earnings of $541,050.62; administration, $82,159.32; insurance, $7,409.85; rent, $39,174.05; dietary, $70,022.97; laundry, $27,745.65; housekeeping, $24,787.42; heat, light, power, $24,635.65; maintenance and repair, $19,492.32; medical and surgical supplies, $16,665.02; drugs, $32,864.15; salaries, $153,067.92; anesthesias, $11,087.48; X-ray, $11,224.87; laboratory, $11,715.28; depreciation, $19,664.78; administrator's home, $10,951.87; tax (Continued on Page 4)

Sat. Deadline Met By Rader

BELLE GLADE — Saturday's deadline for demolition, removal or rehabilitation of Rader properties at 428 Ave. A will be met as a result of action at Wednesday's City Commission meeting.

Minion Rader requested permission to begin rehabilitation and was told by Mayor Harold Rabin all he had to do was redevelop a portion of the city's building and fire code. By court order Rader had 60 days in which to commence work and indicated he had intended to proceed according to the provisions of the order Wednesday night.

Commissioners H. O. Carlton, Herman Close, Walter Ashley and Zack Ingram accepted the bid of Glades Equipment Co. to dump bed of truck chassis with missioners agreed to take a note and accept an agreement from Ray M. Brown to secure laying of approximately 1300 ft. of one-inch water pipe to his property owned of Chosen. Brown agreed to reimburse the city at $10 per month in addition to payment of water charges.

Series Of Letters — A series of letters was heard, one from Representative-Elmer Emmett Roberts outlining plans for a county-wide legislative clinic and suggesting that city charter changes be drawn up for presentation when the Legislature meets. In addition, the Florida (Continued on Page 4)

SOC. SECURITY SENDS 2 TEAMS

Next Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday from 1 to 7 p.m. each day, Social Security office field teams will conduct simultaneous registration of Negroes for SS numbers at Belle Glade and Pahokee.

Officials said two teams will work on the same days, rather than on different days as previously scheduled. At Palm Beach, the teams will be at the Elks Club, workers of that area not now holding social security numbers may apply for them on the designated days. In Pahokee, the old clinic building near East Lake school will be the registration center.

The field officers urged all growers and farmers to have their labor on hand to register if they have not already done so.

6 Changes In Bylaws Suggested

BELLE GLADE — A six-point revision of the medical by-laws of Belle Glade Memorial Hospital (4) was suggested at a hospital board meeting Monday.

Dr. J. Allen Baker, of by-law revisions committee, appeared in person to present his recommendations, made in writing at the board's request.

His suggestions: (1) Drop requirements of compulsory membership in Palm Beach County Medical Society, which will not stand up in court and are being eliminated to avoid litigation, as for example, at Good Samaritan Hospital, West Palm Beach;

(2) Drop requirements of residence in Palm Beach County for courtesy staff, a rule which now bars "the most illustrious group of specialists in South Florida," Miami medical school staff members.

(3) Deny surgical privileges to all except residents of the immediate Glades area unless such surgeons will stay in the community until their surgical patients are discharged from the hospital. "To allow post-operative patients to be abandoned by surgeons living in Palm Beach, or other far distant cities is entirely unrealistic and potentially a very dangerous practice."

(4) Delegation of post-operative care to other physicians deprecates patient care and sets the stage for the practice of fee-splitting, one of the most despicable breaches of medical ethics," Dr. Baker wrote;

(5) In order to establish an active and representative medical (Continued on Page 8)

ROGERS RUNNING FOR HOUSE POST

WEST PALM BEACH — Paul Rogers, 33-year-old attorney here, this week became the first announced candidate to succeed his father, Dwight Rogers, as Congressman from Florida's Sixth district.

A member of the law firm of Burns, Middleton, Rogers and Farrell, Rogers has been prominently associated with the district as the likely choice to succeed his father.

Rogers, who has long been closely associated with his father in connection with the affairs of the district, said he was very familiar with the congressional situation, particularly those affairs which concern Florida's sixth district. He has never before sought public office.

Rogers said that he shares the (Continued on Page 8)

REQUIEM — The flags of the Nation's Capitol were at half mast last week. The whole nation mourned the passing of one of Florida's elder statesmen, the Honorable Dwight L. Rogers, Ft. Lauderdale, Monday, December 6, 1954, at the age of 68.

It would appear that the very thing that Rogers loved the most, keeping in touch with his constituents, was the indirect cause of his death. He came to Washington in 1944 as the first Representative from the newly-created sixth district. His standing in the eyes of his fellow Floridians is attested by the fact that he was the only man ever to hold that post, and in the past to hold it he was the only man with no opposition — either Democratic or Republican. He had an almost perfect voting record for the 10 years he was in Congress — an achievement for which he was justly proud. He was the man who pushed through the bill extending military terminal leave pay to enlisted personnel at the end of World War II.

And it was Congressman Rogers who introduced legislation, later defeated, to grant the right to vote to 18-year-olds. This he did minutes before President Eisenhower himself spoke to the Congress — calling for such a law. He loved the outdoors, and spent much of his spare time playing golf. He enjoyed the game of playing with the President at "Burning Tree" where both were members. Dwight Rogers was a deeply religious man. He was a member of the Scriptures and had been a Bible School teacher for more than 40 years.

This memory will be long respected and his name honored and revered in the halls of Congress, where he served so loyally and so well.

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

By Sen. George Smathers

WASHINGTON — Definite signs pointing to Florida's future may be read in recent Census Bureau reports which speak for themselves. Florida's population has jumped from 2,729,000 to 3,436,000 since 1950. The percentage gain in that four-year period is 25.9. This compares to a national average of 6.3 and southern increase of 5.3.

Speaking of the population trends in the South, the Southern States Industrial Council has this comment: "One of the Southern states — Florida — has the third largest population increase in any of the 48 states, being exceeded only by Nevada and Arizona. This is generally ascribed to the seeking of retired people for a sunny climate. The three other Southern states mentioned as having better than average growth — Louisiana, Maryland and Texas — can credit the increase to the growth of industry in those states, which has been larger and varied."

Elsewhere in the South, gains were moderate. Our neighboring state of Georgia jumped 4.7 in population, Alabama was up 1.5 per cent, while the Carolinas were better than 3.5. Tennessee 1.9, Virginia 6.1, Mississippi 0.7 and Kentucky 0.5. Arkansas and West Virginia showed decreases.

delegation who have been working together on this problem for the past several years. He passed on a report of a November 11 "back" on a Red Tide area two miles long and a quarter mile wide. "In the attacking force were three airplanes and five surface vessels which dusted 7,200 pounds of copper sulfate on the area. Conclusions: "Before dusting, the water contained concentrations of from 150,000 to 500,000 'Jim Brevis' organisms per quart."

"After dusting, the water in the control area was free of the organisms. This condition prevailed for about five hours. Then the infestation started again. Twelve hours after dusting, the area was as heavily infested as it had been before the experiment started."

"The relative short duration of effective control on the test area has been attributed in part to the fact that the infestation hastened the mixing of water from adjacent untreated areas. Laboratory study of the water samples is continuing."

New York City
The short flight from Zurich to London was somewhat spoliadic. The plane flew above the clouds and had only the briefest glimpse of the English Channel or the French countryside. This was the second flight by Swissair and we were again assured by the meticulous way in which every announcement to the passengers over the loudspeaker was repeated three times, first in English then in French and German.

London airport seemed immense and we were not surprised to find a bus pulled up to the plane to take us to the customs and immigration office. Once again we went through the formalities with the minimum of fuss and in no time were packed into a friend's small car for the trip to town and her apartment. We had managed to hit the rush hour so it took us almost an hour to make the trip. Everything looked familiar although I was only 10 the last time I was in England. It was partly a matter of being able to read all the signs, but also probably we have seen more photographs and movies of London than most of the other places we had visited.

Even More So
The feeling of familiarity was even stronger the next day when we wandered around shopping. Piccadilly, Regent Street, Bond Street and The Strand seemed no more strange than Fifth Avenue or 42nd St. In fact we found that we could get from one place to another with only occasional peaks at the map. We had counted on a traveler's checks the night before and found to our delight that we were still quite solvent and a second look showed that neither of us had spent any.

Columnist Vondermuhl On Tour

MRS. DEUELL
With the conclusion this week of the "round-the-world column" of OBSERVER Reader Valery Vondermuhl, the editor thought our readers would like to see the author on that world tour. Above, (l-r) Mrs. Harris Deuell, co-traveller, and Mrs. Vondermuhl, are enjoying the most popular mode of travel in Kandy, Ceylon.

where near the $500 limit on purchases we could bring home duty free. So we went off to buy some silver. Of course, we managed to spot the most expensive thing in the shop first, but after a bit, with the help of a delightful middle-aged salesman (dressed as expected in the soberest black suit), we narrowed down to a couple of beautiful pieces each, in my case a hand some tankard made in about 1810 and a small 18th century gravy boat.

The next day, Saturday we took the train to Brighton to meet the famous English cartoonist, Rowland Emmet and his wife and to visit them in the little cottage they are remodeling in a hamlet called Ditchling. We met the Emmets and worked with them when they were touring the United States, working on an artist's impression of America which ran in the Fourth of July issue of LIFE last summer. They were anxious to help us see as much of England as we could see in one day. Unfortunately, but characteristically, the day was gray and rainy but we did get a glimpse of the Sussex hills, a look at the ocean and a wonderful steak at a small country hotel. Somewhere along the line we were shown the house where Tom Paine lived and in Brighton we saw the ornate pavilion that George IV used as a summer palace when he was Prince of Wales.

CARE Couple
The next day, our last in England we went to call on a couple we had been corresponding with ever since we started sending them CARE packages when the British rationing was so severe some years ago. We had never met them, having gotten their name from a Dutch girl who had stayed with them after her release from a German prison. The first few moments were awkward but once the ice was broken we had a delightful time. At their suggestion we drove out to Hampton Court on one of Henry VIII's residences and wandered around the grounds there for about an hour. The English weather was not cooperating at all but no one really seemed to care. On our way home we took a quick turn around the city to see Buckingham Palace, the Abbey, St. Paul's and as many other sights as could be squeezed in in the short time left.

The scars of the war are still much in evidence but there is also a great deal of building going on, much of it quite handsome.

Back to the apartment to pack, this time with the eagle eye of the US customs man in mind. As the guide books require, we packed all our foreign purchases together, then crammed our clothes in every which way. Off to the airport and the last long leg of the trip. We had a drink in Shannon in the early evening, coffee in Gander in the very early morning and finally, 20 minutes ahead of schedule, we circled Idlewild and landed.

Stiff Customs
Then for the first time on the whole trip we really got stiff customs treatment. Our declarations were scrutinized and questioned, we had to open several bags, the customs officers missed seeing the life of the average man except from a distance, we certainly know practical nothing first hand about the attitudes of the average Indian or Thai. But we've made a start and maybe the next time round....

There are a lot of things that we wish now that we had done or seen, there are places we would have liked to stay in longer and letters of introduction we regret not having used. We didn't learn nearly enough about the politics and economics of the countries we saw, we missed seeing the life of the average man except from a distance, we certainly know practical nothing first hand about the attitudes of the average Indian or Thai. But we've made a start and maybe the next time round....

Bright Outlook For Agriculture In 1955

BY SPUDS JOHNSON
Ag. News Service

Farmers of Florida and other states have been going through a period of adjustment to peacetime conditions that has brought lower prices for some of their products and less profits on their operations. Fortunately, economists say that a solid base for farm prices and incomes, on which farmers can build security and prosperity, is now clearly evident. The outlook for farming — for sound prosperity with peace — is good. Consumer incomes and consumer spending are expected to remain fairly stable and increase some. People will continue to live well and buy high-level diet items like meat, milk, eggs, fruits and vegetables.

Beef consumption set an all-time high in 1953 and has moved on up to an even higher record of nearly 80 pounds of beef per person per year. Both beef production and feeding have been more profitable this year. Hogs will continue profitable. Smaller support purchases of dairy products are clear evidence that dairying is headed toward better days.

Exports of farm products turned up in 1953—are running 7 percent higher. This year and the outlook is for a further substantial increase in 1955.

The end of the accumulation of surplus farm products in government stocks is in sight. Land values show more stability—a leveling out since last March.

Costs of production on farms will continue to be cut. Marketing will become more efficient. Increased emphasis on research will speed up such results.

Federal taxes have been cut. Old age and family security will now become available to farm families.

Our researchers say, "Farm life in the future should be more efficient, less heartbreaking and more pleasant."

ROBBERATIONS

Texas Has To Be Big
Commentators and columnists have criticized government regulations which permit mail addressed anonymously to "box holders", "occupants" and "householders" to be delivered by the Post Office Department. Most critics feel that their waste baskets are overcrowded with circulars and handouts and samples of merchandise sent by companies too unimaginative to obtain a proper mailing list.

Occasionally, however, a package so addressed merits careful attention. One of these contained a book entitled "Hugh Roy Cullen, A Story of American Opportunity" written by Ed Kilman and others.

The book proves that Texas has to be as large a state as geography shows it to be and as huge as Texans claim it is because Hugh Roy Cullen made a billion dollars in it. Cullen, a rugged individualist with a fifth grade education, started wild-erting for oil in areas abandoned by others or shown to be unproductive by known tests. The authors do not hold that any man can make a fortune because of his lack of education. Cullen respects education and has given away 93 percent of his fortune to educational institutions. He knows that his fortune was based on sagacity and not on luck.

Cullen's story is a tale of adventure and unfolds from his early days as a cotton broker in the Oklahoma Territory to his present position as adviser to Presidents.

The authors have written a fine study in the oil industry in the Southwest. Their research has encompassed studies in geology, drilling methods and marketing of oil. In the 70-year span Cullen has lived there have been important historical and economic and political events. These the authors have put in perspective.

Some men's lives are interesting because they lived them, others attract attention because of peculiar achievement, but this man's life is a study in the progress and developments of a part of the nation.

CARLE, CITIZENS, AND COMMISSION IN FIERY FIRING SESSION

'A TOWN MEETING IN THE GLADES,' PHOTOGRAPHED BY ALLIE OKIE

Discussion, Vote, Then Uproar Began

BY THE EDITOR

In the Glades, as in nearly all areas of the U. S., it often seems as though the only time the townsfolk bother to attend their city government meetings is when they think their pocket-books are in danger.

An exception to this mercenary motive occurred last week when City Manager Tom Carle and the Belle Glade City Commission tangled. (See news story Page 1). Nobody could have been more surprised than the Commissioners at the turnout of non-official garden-variety citizens, most of whom appeared in defense of Carle and were vehement in their views on a matter of "justice."

Last Thursday seemed like a good time for OBSERVER to take its cameras to a city meeting, something it has been wanting to do for a long time. The pictures above, showing what happens when the citizens and the city fathers get together, may inspire other townspeople of the Glades to show up at council or commission meetings more often, to keep themselves better informed on all matters pertaining to city government.

Allie Okie used the Leica 35 mm and the Graflex press camera alternately to record "A Town Meeting in the Glades."

CARLE PHOPONENT is J. Marvin Unwin. . . . CARLE OPPONENT is Commissioner Herman Close. . . . CONTROVERSIAL City Manager Tom Carle rises to answer a question as Commissioner Walter Ashley, who sided with city manager, is deep in thought. LEGAL POINT is discussed by Attorney Claude Jones and Mayor Harold Rabin.

THANKS TO CITIZENS for their support is voiced by Carle after 3-2 vote of commissioners to dismiss him. On left is Commissioner Z. T. Ingram, who with Ashley represented the two votes to retain Carle. MRS. RUTH WEDGORTH, who with others at back of room did not realize dismissal vote had been cast until Carle rose, rushes to press table to look at reporter's notes on dismissal action. At extreme left City Clerk Frank Anderson threads a new tape into recorder used during session. MAYOR RABIN explains that commission is trying to be fair to all concerned. Mrs. Rabin hovers anxiously over her husband, who is recovering from a recent illness.

Christmas Music At Pahokee PTA

PAHOKEE — Pahokee high school glee club, numbering 39 voices and the Pahokee high school band of 80 members will be featured in a combined concert of Christmas classics and popular numbers at the Pahokee Parent-Teacher Association's December meeting Monday night at 8 o'clock at the high school auditorium. James W. Vann is in charge of program arrangements.

This will be the first joint appearance of the two musical groups and there is a possibility the event may become an annual Christmas practice of the PTA, making it possible for the youth and adults of the community to share the observance of the Advent season through the medium of the school.

The following program will be presented: "Rise Up Early," Richard Katz; "Carol of the Bells," Leon Tovish, an Ukrainian carol; "Carol of the Shepherds," a French carol; "The Shepherds and the Inn," a Mexican carol; "O Holy Night," Adolph Adam, with Hal Rosenberg and Pat Turbeville as soloists; "White Christmas," solo by Farris Kincaid; "Merry Christmas," an English carol. The songs will be directed by Miss Margaret Powell with Miss Rose Marie Henderson, accompanist.

The band, directed by Bandmaster Robert O. Lampi, will play, "Christmas Greetings March," Walters; "The Rosary," Ethelbert Nevin - Walters; "March of the Toys," Victor Herbert; "White Christmas," Irving Berlin; "The Christmas Suite," Walters. The band and glee club will present, jointly, "Joy to the World," "Silent Night," and "O Come All Ye Faithful," with the audience joining in the latter.

Mrs. Thomas Elliott will be in charge of the hospitality period and Mrs. John A. Dulany will preside.

Church Activities In The Glades

WCS IS ENTERTAINED BY EAST LAKE CHORUS

The Women's Society for Christian Service of First Methodist Church of Pahokee was entertained Monday evening with a musical interlude by the East Lake school children's choir.

This was the second annual presentation of the Choir by WSCS. The service consisted of a sung procession with groups of carols and a candlelight carol service following. A highlight of the evening was the Annunciation scene, from the Christmas pageant, "Joyfuls of Christmas," which the school presents each year as a feature of its public relations program. Beautifully costumed and lighted, this scene drew much favorable comment from the large and appreciative audience. At the close of the service the principal of East Lake school, S. M. Murrell, was presented with a beautifully bound volume for the school library.

A business session followed the program. Mrs. Frank Friend is president of the society.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, Belle Glade CHRISTIAN SCIENCE GROUP, Canal Point

The subject of the Lesson-Service to be read at Christmas-Sermon services this Sunday is "God the Preserver of Man." Among the passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following (18:7-11): "Our Master taught his disciples one brief prayer, which we name after him the Lord's Prayer. Our Master said, 'After this manner therefore pray ye, which then he gave that prayer, and covers all human needs.'"

From the Bible will be read the account as given in Matthew of Christ Jesus' instructions on how to pray which includes the following (6:7, 8): "But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathens do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him."

BAKE SALE TOMORROW

A bake sale will be held Dec. 11 by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Belle Glade Community Methodist Church. ## The exciting new idea behind the motoramic Chevrolet

The Bel Air 4-Door Sedan—one of 14 new Fisher Body beauties in three new series

Maybe once in a car-buying lifetime, you come across something that breaks all the old patterns and establishes new ones. This is that kind of car. This is the true story of how Chevrolet and General Motors shaped a new idea in steel.

- bring you the very freest and finest styling to be had.
- bring you the most advanced engine design and engineering features.
- bring you the kind of performance and the kind of ride that have never been available before in a low-priced car.
- bring you the highest quality of manufacture and materials.

All this in Chevrolet's price field? That did take some doing! And isn't it logical that only Chevrolet and General Motors have the people, skills, resources and facilities, to carry out this exciting new idea? Here is how this new Chevrolet changes all your ideas about cars!

Real Show-Car Styling!

Your eye tells you the Motoramic Chevrolet is no riding "patch-up" job. A rakish, low profile, swift swiftness from its sleek rear fenders to its wide-eyed Sweep-Sight windshield... a new outlook for motoring. And that outlook doesn't change when you slip inside... exciting fabrics and trim are harmonized with the whole car.

A Sensational Ride!

You live the new idea instantly... you glide... actually glide because spherical joints "roll" with the "push" of the road on Chevrolet's new Glide-Ride front suspension. And, outrigger rear springs mean new balance in turns... turns made so effortless by new ball-race steering. And when you stop suddenly, new Anti-Dive braking control checks that nosing down in front... you get "head up" stopping. Tubular tires mean much greater protection against blowouts. And with new high-level ventilation there's fresher air.

Drive with care... EVERYWHERE! Make December 15 and every day SAFE-DRIVING DAY!

Power Beyond Compare!

You also feel the new idea quickly... quick power like a panther's paw with the new "Turbo-Fire V8" (162 h.p.) and two new "Blue-Flame" 6's. And sparking this performance is a 12-volt electrical system giving you better ignition, faster starting, greater electrical reserve for any of the power assists you might desire. You have a transmission choice of economical Overdrive and improved, automatic Powerglide (optional at extra cost) or standard shift.

Even Air Conditioning!

And if you desire the convenience of power assists (optional at extra cost)... you'll find new power-steering and improved power brakes on all models. Power-controlled windows and powerup seat are available on the Bel Air and "Two-Ten" models, while air conditioning may be added on V8 models.

Won't You Try It?

Here, we can only tell you how successfully the Motoramic Chevrolet expresses the new idea behind it. But the car itself can quickly show you! Come in for a demonstration drive, won't you, first chance you get.

More than a new car, a new concept of low-cost motoring

NEW ANTIBIOTIC TESTED HERE

BELLE GLADE — A new antibiotic formula was demonstrated Monday before Glades farmers to be effective in controlling a vegetable disease that reduces crop yield up to 75 per cent.

Dr. R. S. Cox, associate plant pathologist at Everglades Experiment Station gave a special field demonstration involving the new antibiotic spray, Agri-mycin. Field results obtained with this antibiotic formula, Cox said, "are highly effective in controlling one of our worst pepper diseases."

Growers and county agents listened to Dr. Cox's reports of the field work and a special bacterial spot of peppers, a disease that costs the nation's farmers hundreds of thousands of dollars annually. Previous field tests have proven the effectiveness of Agri-mycin, developed by Chas. Pfizer & Co., Inc. of Brooklyn, N. Y. in the control of fire blight, a crop disease affecting peaches and apples, and halo blight, which affects lima beans.

Harrington Field On the Roswell Harrington farm in Canal Point where much of the field work was conducted, test results indicated that pepper crop yield could be doubled with proper application of antibiotic disease controls. Three years ago, normal crop yield on the Harrington farm averaged 150 bushels per acre. After using severely hit with bacterial spot and virus diseases Mr. Harrington's yield dropped to 290 bushels per acre.

Together with Agri-mycin tested on the field beds, seven orthodox chemicals and four separate streptomycin concentrations were used. As scientific controls some infected beds were left untreated. Agri-mycin, which is a combination of the antibiotics terramycin and streptomycin, provided disease control superior to any of the sprays used.

"Antibiotics in plant sprays," said Dr. Cox, "have many advantages not present in standard chemical controls. The streptomycin-terramycin formula is absorbed by the plant, thus giving the plant system a defense against disease bacteria. The principle is the same as that applied by the physician in curing human disease. While chemical sprays will be washed off by rain, this cannot happen with antibiotics once they are absorbed."

BASS NEW MANAGER OF GRASSY WATERS REST.

PAHOKEE — Kenneth H. Bass took over Dec. 3 as manager of Grassy Waters Restaurant, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Don Hillier adjacent to their Grassy Waters Motel.

Bass, of Belle Glade, said he has reduced a present in standard chemical controls. The streptomycin-terramycin formula is absorbed by the plant, thus giving the plant system a defense against disease bacteria. The principle is the same as that applied by the physician in curing human disease. While chemical sprays will be washed off by rain, this cannot happen with antibiotics once they are absorbed.

NEW FIELD MAN WITH SOCIAL SECURITY TEAM

John W. English has arrived in West Palm Beach to work with the Glades out of the Social Security Administration office there. He will replace James Bozeman, who is being transferred to Tampa Feb. 1, 1955.

English, a native of Texas, was transferred to his new post from Tennessee. He has served with the government previously in Tennessee, Georgia, and originally in Key West.

COMIC BOOKS ARE INDICTED

BELLE GLADE — Saying that children with a tendency toward delinquency can be influenced to be delinquent, Julian Griggs quoted a Senate sub-committee report on Wednesday's Lions luncheon to reveal that comic books of the horror variety can be a bad influence on behavior.

Griggs, Osceola Community social worker, differentiated between humorous comic books and those which are pure horror stories. He said that of 450 children questioned in one study in grades four to six the average number of such books read by each child totaled 14. In 1948 10% of the comic books were of the horror and crime variety. Today more than 50% are horror and crime. Citing a campaign in Hartford, Conn. where "Devil's For Children" 10c Per Copy" was the keynote, Griggs said that successful measures were taken to rid newsstands of comic books.

Emmett Roberts moved, and the club adopted a motion, to "Devil's For Children" 10c Per Copy" are doing to stamp out horror and crime books in the community.

Final Plans were made for the annual Lions football barbecue being held at Belle Glade school cafeteria on Thursday at 7 p. m. with Pahokee Lions, football players and others as honored guests.
